E. FORCED LABORER CAMPS:

23. While interned in camp, # 83/2-3, SHCHERBAKOV, SOURCE became acquainted with several international people other than PWs; camp occupied by about 350 prisoners. Among these 350 prisoners were: 36 Dutch PWs (repatriated in the meantime), 12 Belgians (11 PWs, one civilian internee), 9 French civilian internees, five Swiss people (three PWs, two civilian internees), two Americans (one sailor and one former member of the US army in BERLIN), two Norwegians (one sailor and one girl), five Danish people (four PWs and one civilian internee), 69 Spaniards (part of them PWs, others former communists in civil war), 68 Italian and South Tirolian PWs, 40 to 50 Finnish civilian internees, 20 to 25 Turkish civilian internees, 20 to 25 Yugoslavians (partly PWs, partly civilian internees), and 60 to 80 Greeks (civilian internees); no work done in this camp.

24. SOURCE knew the following names of non-Soviet prisoners other than PWs or war criminals:

AMILSEN (SOURCE'S spelling), Belgian national, about 30 years old, 1.68 to 1.70 m tall, slender, blond hair; lived in RIGA(5659N-2409E) after WW II. No further info available.

KOCKS (SOURCE'S spelling), American national, about 35 years old, 1.75 m tall, stout, dark blond hair, tattoos on both arms and legs and on the chest. KOCKS was a member of the MP of the US army in BERLIN where he was arrested by Soviets in E sector of BERLIN; time unknown.

LEE (SOURCE'S spelling), American national, 30 to 35 years old, 1.70 m tall, slender, dark blond hair, negroid face, but light colored skin. LEE was a member of the American merchant marine; time and place of arrest unknown.

CARLSON (SOURCE'S spelling), Danish national, 28 years old, 1.80 m tall, broad shoulders, stout, blond hair, blue eyes. He was arrested by Soviet officials while fishing in Soviet territory. Time and place of arrest unknown. He had been sentenced to forced labor; length of time unknown.

The groups of Spanish non-PWs consisted of men who were brought to the Soviet Union during Spanish civil war for pilot training. Before these Spaniards finished pilot training they were arrested by the Soviets without being sentenced.

All Finnish internees had been arrested for illegal border crossing at the Soviet Finnish border after WW II. All of them sentenced to forced labor for unknown time.

Most Turkish and Greek internees were working in the Soviet Union during and after WW II and had been arrested for criminal and political violations.

25. SOURCE could offer no info relative to this paragraph.
